

Once upon a time... a swan lake

Choreography Luca Bruni

Originale music: Marco Schiavoni

Scenes and Costumes: Mario Ferrari

Scene and costumes realized by : Teatro Oplas

Video: Michele Ragni.

During the celebration of the young Prince's engagement, other young people are waiting for the day to be free, after have been changed into swans by the spell of Rothbart

...but only a Prince will set them free bringing them hope, virtue and a new life, and saving them from their terrible fate...

But where's the Prince? Everybody is looking for him, but no one knows where he is hiding himself...

And you: have you ever seen where is he?

The stilt-dancers are giving here a very personal and bizarre version of the famous ballet "Swan Lake": firstly created on 1997 for the Biennale Theatre Jeunes Public Festival of Lyon (F), this spectacle had been represented in the most famous European street festivals and in the U.S.A., receiving several prizes.

Prix:

Koblenz Int. Gaukler und kleine Kunst Festival, Koblenz (D) 2000